ABOUT ME

I graduated in Computer Science and Telecommunications from Alessandro Volta High School in Naples. During my studies, I discovered a passion for graphic design and web development, which inspired me to further pursue this interest. To build on this passion, I undertook a training program through the Scrimba platform, where I specialized in frontend web development. This experience has allowed me to gain a good understanding of web design principles, HTML, CSS, JavaScript and REACT, which I am eager to apply in my professional career.

COMMUNICATION AND INTERPERSONAL SKILLS

My Personality

I am an empathetic person with strong listening skills, always ready to understand and support others. I enjoy socializing and can easily adapt to different group dynamics, making me a good team player. I always do my best to maintain a positive team spirit and ensure a motivating and collaborative atmosphere. Reliable and perseverant, I am committed to completing tasks, overcoming challenges, and staying focused on achieving our collective goals. Furthermore, I like finding and analyzing new approaches that are unknown to me to solve problems.
